- 57. (I digressed) Defendant Jodry became more aggressive with Plaintiff.
- 58. Defendant Jodry would discuss the manner her manipulative and sadistic manner of thinking has gotten her out of criminal behavior, and the manner she intended to get a student out of the university if she ever felt provoked.
- 59. Defendant Dimenna went into the system and repeatedly dropped all of Plaintiff's classes for the following semester, which directly impacted her financial aid and her housing.
- 60. Defendant Dimenna told Plaintiff these actions were deliberate, and the only manner she would be able to remain enrolled at the school for the following semester is if Plaintiff paid the school for housing and her classes in full, which was distressing to Plaintiff.
- 61. At that time, Plaintiff could not afford to pay the school close to $30,000 in such a short time frame, working part-time.
- 62. And since Defendant Dimenna represented the Office of the President of the school at that time, when Plaintiff went to the Registrar in an attempt to resolve this new issue, she was told they could not re-enroll Plaintiff in classes unless they received authorization from Defendant Dimenna.
- 63. Based on the circumstance, Plaintiff felt like she was being terrorized.
- 64. Plaintiff felt a sense of foreboding through the semester which continued through her last final exam at the end of December 2014.
- 65. On or about January 11th, 2015, Plaintiff received a phone call from Defendant Nagy in student services requesting for Plaintiff to meet with Nagy related to Defendant Jodry.
- 66. Plaintiff agreed since she thought this might resolve the criminal activity targeted towards her by members of Monmouth University.
- 67. In the meeting, however, Nagy yelled at Plaintiff and threatened her, her graduate education, and her housing.
- 68. Plaintiff felt uncomfortable with Defendant Nagy's dialog, and she left the meeting.
- 69. By this point in time, Plaintiff was nearing break-down.

- 70. On January 12th, 2015, after a harassing call from Defendant Nagy, Plaintiff reiterated that she wanted Defendant Jodry to 'leave her alone', and sent a family picture of the reason she attended graduate school in the first place.
- 71. Plaintiff explained the issue to Ryan Kassick in Student Housing at Monmouth University, and he granted her an extension to remain in off-campus housing until in or about January 15th, 2015.
- 72. Sometime in between, Defendant Kapalka called the school and changed Plaintiff's graduation from May 2015 to January 15th 2015 in the absence of Plaintiff's authorization.

- 74. Although Plaintiff earned graduate credits at another university, she did not have enough time to transfer the credits to graduate in January 2015.

- 76. Plaintiff called back the department at Monmouth University responsible for scheduling graduations and changed her graduation back to May 2015.

- 77. By this time, Plaintiff could not sleep, was visibly distressed, and she was on the verge of a breakdown.
- 78. On January 12th, 2015, Plaintiff had a breakdown and sent an email to Defendant Nagy indicating "frankly" Plaintiff knows 'all she needs to know' about Defendant Jodry through lecture.

- 83. In or about the first week of January 2015, Plaintiff noticed Long Branch police began to circle her apartment.
- 84. Plaintiff was scared and on edge since she knew something bad was going to happen to her in the absence of Defendant Anderson addressing her complaints.
- 85. The morning of January 13th, 2015, Plaintiff received a call from Defendant Dianna's secretary requesting from Plaintiff to attend the meeting at 3pm, instead of 9am.
- 86. By this time, Plaintiff was in duress.
- 87. When Plaintiff arrived at the meeting, she was escorted into Defendant Dianna's office by

- 93. Prior to this heinous incident, Defendants Mitchell and Vollbrecht illegally searched Plaintiff's apartment, and Defendant Mitchell called Long Branch police and told them to "pick her up" if they saw Plaintiff.
- 94. Defendant Dimenna then called Defendants Layton who called Defendant Mitchell and Vollbrecht and informed them of the meeting between Plaintiff and Defendant Diana without Plaintiff's knowledge on January 13th, 2015.

I received a call from D/Cpl. Layton, MUPD. He advised that he received a call from Grey Dissums advising that they were going to have Jacquelyn Reaves come in this date at 3:00pm to the General Council office to speak with her about her status with the school. He advised that if we still need to get her them we could meet her at this meeting. I advised him that this would be fine and that I would meet him at their FD at 2:30pm.

- 114. Plaintiff was erroneously drugged at Monmouth Medical based on her family picture for over a month and she was disallowed from signing herself out.
- When Defendants Geller, Kinneman, Santiago, and Chowdhury asked Plaintiff if she knew the reason she was at Monmouth Medical, and Plaintiff tried to explain that Defendant Jodry and other representatives were har assing her, they increased the drugs and sedatives they administered to her against her will.
- 116. When Plaintiff refused to take the drugs, the Defendants called security and nursing staff to restrain Plaintiff, hold her down, and inject her with drugs.
- 117. The more Plaintiff told Defendants Geller, Kinneman, and Santiago what really happened the more intense and damaging the drugs became, and the longer Defendants held Plaintiff at Monmouth Medical without cause.

- 118. Defendants Kinneman and Santiago also told Plaintiff Defendant Mitchell filed a charge against Plaintiff for harassment which was alarming to Plaintiff.
- 119. After Plaintiff found out about this charge, she called Neptune City police to pursue charges against Defendant Mitchell and Vollbrecht.
- 120. Plaintiff spoke to lt. Quigliato who laughed at Plaintiff since she could not help from slurring her words due to the criminal drugging, he mocked her for still being at Monmouth Medical, and he hung up the phone on her.
- 121. This severe sadistic criminal activity against Plaintiff based on her race, color, gender, and her family picture has lasted for over several years to cause her irreparable harm and damage.
- 122. The longer Plaintiff was held at Monmouth Medical the more other staff members began to complain to Defendants Geller, Kinneman, and Chowdhury, since she did not belong there.
- 123. The result of this conspired criminal activity ultimately rendered Plaintiff displaced with no income, and homeless.
- 124. Some staff members at Monmouth Medical even refused to drug Plaintiff.
- 125. By this time, Defendant Nagy was sending Plaintiff harassing letters to old apartment all of which were given to her by Defendants Kinneman, and Santiago at Monmouth medical, to torment Plaintiff.
- 126. The letters indicated that Plaintiff is no longer a student at Monmouth University since she did not pay her tuition and housing bill, and to remove her belongings immediately.
- 127. Defendant Nagy began calling Plaintiff's family member (her emergency contact) to harass her.
- 128. After a month of drugging Plaintiff based on her family picture, Defendant Chowdhury told Plaintiff that she wanted a blood sample which Plaintiff refused.
- 129. Shortly after, Defendants Geller, Chowdhury, Kinneman, and Santiago, ordered security to put Plaintiff in a strait jacket, they strapped her to a stretcher, and she was transported Trenton

- Psychiatric Hospital, were she drugged in a similar manner for another two months under the direction of Defendant Ervilus.
- 130. When Plaintiff arrived at Trenton Psych, Defendant Ervilus asked Plaintiff why she was there all of which Plaintiff did not have an answer for at that time.
- 131. Defendant Ervilus then told Plaintiff that he 'can read her mind' which was strange and distressing to Plaintiff.
- 132. Defendant Ervilus then issued an order to continutally drug Plaintiff.
- 133. Staff at Trenton Psych questioned Plaintiff as to the reason she was there since she did not belong in the facility.
- 134. They attempted to encourage Plaintiff to speak to Defendant Ervilus.
- 135. However, Plaintiff knew that after Defendant Ervilus declared he could 'read her mind' that he was demented, and there was no hope.
- 136. Defendant Ervilus increased the drugs and he gave her an additional 5mg of antipsychotics every other week.
- 137. Plaintiff was eventually released two months later after agreeing to a subsidized housing program to be released from Trenton Psych, which forced her into Somerset County.
- 138. Plaintiff felt dehumanized, she was severely depressed, cathartic, and she lost her entire support system.
- 139. In August 2015, Plaintiff had to present in court in Neptune, New Jersey, to stand against false charges Defendant Mitchell and Vollbrect filed against her for something she never did.
- 140. Defendants Jodry, Mitchell, and Vollbrecht were present in the courtroom to watch Plaintiff and torment her.
- 141. The charges were subsequently dismissed against Plaintiff.
- 142. Plaintiff's body and life felt violated which compelled her to sign criminal charges against the defendants.

- 143. In September 2015, Plaintiff called Neptune City police again and spoke to Defendant Kirschenbaum, to pursue charges against Defendants Jodry, Mitchell, and Vollbrecht.
- 144. Defendant Kirschenbaum refused to conduct the investigation.
